Why I Made This Guide

Hi, my name is Vance Dotson.

I been working in the credit repair industry for over a decade. I have seen many issues with credit over my years working and I've saw one of the biggest problems consumers face in credit is getting their credit report. Credit Karma isn't going to give your full credit report and many people don't understand that without your full credit report, you aren't going to solve all your credit issues you may have.

Until you get your full credit report you will not fully understand why you may be getting denied your dream car or home without the full picture. Annualcreditreport.com is a government site that gives your full reports for free but it is difficult to navigate for those who are new to the site. This book is a guide to make it easier for you.

Warning:

DO NOT PERFORM THIS ON A CELL PHONE

This site causes major issues downloading reports on a cellphone and if you mess up you will have to wait seven days to try again

You will need to be on a computer.
It is NOT RECOMMENDED to get your three credit reports on your phone
